

Avis and Budget Car Rental Extend Services to New Paine Field Airport in Greater Seattle

April 5, 2019

PARSIPPANY, N.J., April 05, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Avis Budget Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: CAR) today announced car rental services available to Paine Field Airport that recently opened its doors in Everett, Washington. A courtesy shuttle will meet all incoming flights and transport passengers to the full-service Avis and Budget car rental facility located less than two miles from the airport terminal.

"This Avis and Budget car rental facility has been a part of the Everett community for decades and we're looking forward to helping both business and leisure travelers select from our full range of vehicles to explore the local area or head into downtown Seattle," said Jeff Eisenbarth, west area vice president, Avis Budget Group. "Conveniently located minutes away from the airport, travelers can be on their way even faster by using the Avis mobile app to coordinate their car rental."

Avis customers can manage their entire rental through an app, including booking their reservation and upgrading their vehicle, and in select vehicles, locking and unlocking car doors and flashing their car lights to easily locate it.

"Now that we're up and running, we are committed to getting passengers on their way faster and making the travel experience easier," said Brett Smith, CEO Propeller Airports. "Avis Budget Group will provide travelers in and out of Paine with a great ground transportation option for access to the greater Seattle metro area."

The Avis and Budget car rental location at 12415 Highway 99 South, Everett, Washington is open to serve travelers seven days a week from 4:30 a.m. to 12 a.m.
