Section 2.6. Administrator's Failure to Instruct the Trustee to Make a Deposit, Draw or Payment. If the Administrator fails to give notice or instructions to make (i) any payment from or deposit into the Collection Account, (ii) any draw on the Series 2024-3 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit or (iii) any withdrawals from any Account, in each case required to be given by the Administrator, at the time specified in the Administration Agreement or any other Related Document (including applicable grace periods), the Trustee shall make such payment or deposit into or from the Collection Account, such draw on the Series 2024-3 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, or such withdrawal from such Account, in each case without such notice or instruction from the Administrator; provided, however, that the Administrator, upon request of the Trustee, promptly provides the Trustee with all information necessary to allow the Trustee to make such a payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal. When any payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal hereunder or under any other Related Document is required to be made by the Trustee or the Paying Agent at or prior to a specified time, the Administrator shall deliver any applicable written instructions with respect thereto reasonably in advance of such specified time.

Section 2.7. Series 2024-3 Reserve Accounts. (a) Establishment of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Series 2024-3 Agent for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders, the Class C Noteholders and the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account"), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2024-3 Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; provided, however, that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2024-3 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Reserve Account into the new Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Series 2024-3 Reserve Account and so long as any Series 2024-3 Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Class A/B/C Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(d) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Series 2024-3 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2024-3 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Series 2024-3 Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2024-3 Noteholders. The Series 2024-3 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(e) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2024-3 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus and shall (i) transfer an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount as of such date over the Class D Liquidity Amount as of such date to the Class D Reserve Account and (ii) pay any remaining Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus to ABRCF.

(f) Termination of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Holders of the Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes and payable from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

(g) Establishment of Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Series 2024-3 Agent for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Reserve Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Reserve Account; provided that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class D Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class D Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2024-3 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Reserve Account into the new Class D Reserve Account. Initially, the Class D Reserve Account will be established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(h) Administration of the Class D Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class D Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(i) Earnings from Class D Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(j) Class D Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class D Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class D Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Reserve Account. The Class D Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2024-3 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(k) Class D Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class D Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class D Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2024-3 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class D Reserve Account Surplus and shall pay such amount to ABRCF.

(l) Termination of Class D Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Class D Noteholders and payable from the Class D Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

Section 2.8. Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2024-3 Cash Collateral Accounts. (a) Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2024-3 Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Series 2024-3 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2024-3 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the holders of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable

(b) Class D Letters of Credit and Class D Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Class D Notes.

In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class D Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the “Class D Cash Collateral Account Collateral”). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2024-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount and the Class D Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2024-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount or the Class D Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2024-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2024-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New

Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, (i) with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (I)(i) and clause (I) of the immediately preceding sentence and (ii) with respect to the Class D Notes, in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (II)(i) and clause (II)(ii) of the immediately preceding sentence, in each case, on such Business Day by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement allocated to the Class

Upon receipt of any such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw an amount (I) on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) the Series 2024-3 Demand Note Payment Amount and (ii) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee and (II) on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of (x) the Series 2024-3 Demand Note Payment Amount over (y) the amounts drawn on the Multi-Series Letter of Credit pursuant to this Section 2.8(f) that are allocable to the Class D Notes and (ii) the Class D Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee.

(g) Draws on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class D Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit

Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes.

(h) Establishment of Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(c), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account into the new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(i) Administration of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and so long as any Class A Note, Class B Note or Class C Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(j) Establishment of Class D Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(d), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class D Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Cash Collateral Account into the new Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(k) Administration of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class D Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(l) Earnings from Series 2024-3 Cash Collateral Accounts. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2024-3 Cash Collateral Accounts shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(m) Series 2024-3 Cash Collateral Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2024-3 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2024-3 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount. In the event that the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2024-3 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2024-3 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

(n) Termination of Series 2024-3 Cash Collateral Account. Upon the termination of this Supplement in accordance with its terms, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Series 2024-3 Noteholders and payable from any Series 2024-3 Cash Collateral Account as provided herein, shall (i) withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2024-3 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2024-3 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount and (ii) withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2024-3 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2024-3 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

Section 2.9. Series 2024-3 Distribution Account. (a) Establishment of Series 2024-3 Distribution Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2024-3 Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Series 2024-3 Distribution Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2024-3 Noteholders. The Series 2024-3 Distribution Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Series 2024-3 Distribution Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Series 2024-3 Distribution Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2024-3 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Series 2024-3 Distribution Account into the new Series 2024-3 Distribution Account. The Series 2024-3 Distribution Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account to invest funds on deposit in the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Series 2024-3 Distribution Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account shall be deemed to be on deposit and available for distribution.

The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account and in and to all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Series 2024-3 Distribution Account. The Series 2024-3 Distribution Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2024-3 Noteholders. Section 5.23. Additional Terms of the Series 2024-3 Notes.

(a) Solely with respect to this Supplement and the Series 2024-3 Notes:

(i) The Opinion of Counsel set forth in Section 2.2(f)(i)(x) of the Base Indenture shall not be required with respect to the Class C Notes and the Class R Notes. The Opinion of Counsel set forth in Section 2.2(f)(i)(y) of the Base Indenture shall not be required with respect to the Class C Notes and the Class R Notes for any Series issued after the date hereof.

(ii) The terms Rating Agency Confirmation Condition and Rating Agency Consent Condition shall be deemed to be satisfied with respect to Fitch if ABRCF notifies Fitch of the applicable action at least ten (10) calendar days prior to such action (or, if Fitch agrees to less than ten (10) calendar days' notice, such lesser period) and Fitch has not notified ABRCF and the Trustee in writing that such action will result in a reduction or withdrawal of the rating given to the Class A Notes, the Class B Notes or the Class C Notes by Fitch within such ten (10) calendar day (or lesser) period.

(b) The transfer by a transferor (a “Transferor”) holding a Class D Note or a beneficial interest therein to a subsequent transferee (a “Transferee”) who wishes to take delivery thereof in the form of a Class D Note or beneficial interest therein will be made upon receipt by the Trustee, at the office of the Trustee, of (x) a transfer certificate from the Transferee substantially in the form of Exhibit W-1 and (y) a transfer certificate from the Transferor substantially in the form of Exhibit W-2. For the avoidance of doubt, if a Transferor or Transferee is unable to provide an applicable transfer certificate due to the requirements of such certificate not being satisfied, such transfer shall not be permitted (and any such transfer shall be void ab initio and of no force and effect). Delivery of any such certificate to ABRCF shall be required to be delivered to the email address set forth in Exhibits W-1 and W-2. Any such transfer shall also be made in accordance with the requirements set forth in Section 5.24 to the extent applicable.

Section 5.24. Transfer and Exchange of Definitive Class D Notes for Global Class D Notes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Supplement, the Base Indenture or in any Related Document, and solely with respect to this Supplement and the Definitive Class D Notes issued pursuant to this Supplement, following the Class D Notes Closing Date, the holder of any Definitive Class D Note may transfer the same in exchange for a Global Class D Note in accordance with this Section 5.24. Any other transfer of a Class D Note shall be made in accordance with Section 2.9 of the Base Indenture.

(a) When Definitive Class D Notes are presented to the Registrar or a co-registrar with a request to register a transfer or to exchange them for an equal principal amount of Global Class D Notes of other authorized denominations, the Registrar shall register the transfer or make the exchange if its requirements for such transaction are met; provided, however, that the Definitive Class D Notes surrendered for transfer or exchange at the office maintained by the Transfer Agent for such purpose in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York (x) shall be duly endorsed or accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to ABRCF and the Registrar, duly executed by the holder thereof or its attorney, duly authorized in writing and (y) shall only be transferred or exchanged in compliance with this Section 5.24.

(b) If interests in a Definitive Class D Note are being transferred to a Restricted Global Class D Note to a Qualified Institutional Buyer in accordance with Rule 144A, each such transferee shall be deemed to have made the representations and agreements set forth in Section 2.9(c)(ii) of the Base Indenture. In addition, such transferee shall be responsible for providing additional information or certification, as shall be reasonably requested by the Trustee, ABRCF or any Placement Agent for such Global Class D Notes, to support the truth and accuracy of such acknowledgements, representations and agreements, it being understood that such additional information is not intended to create additional restrictions on the transfer of the Class D Notes.

(c) If a holder of a beneficial interest in a Definitive Class D Note wishes at any time to exchange its interest in such Definitive Class D Note for an interest in a Restricted Global Class D Note, Permanent Global Class D Note or Temporary Global Class D Note, or to transfer its interest in such Definitive Class D Note to a Person who wishes to take delivery thereof in the form of an interest in a Restricted Global Class D Note, Permanent Global Class D Note or Temporary Global Class D Note, such holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream and DTC, as the case may be, exchange or cause the exchange or transfer of such interest for an equivalent beneficial interest a Restricted Global Class D Note, Permanent Global Class D Note or Temporary Global Class D Note. Upon receipt by the Transfer Agent of (i) such Definitive Class D Note properly endorsed for cancellation by such holder or for assignment to the transferee, (ii) a written order given in accordance with the applicable procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream or DTC, as the case may be, containing information regarding the agent member's account with DTC (and/or the Euroclear or Clearstream account, as the case may be) to be credited with such increase and (iii) (x) a transfer certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit W-2 hereto, (y) in the case of a transfer to a Restricted Global Class D Note, a certificate in the form of Exhibit X-3 and (z) in the case of a transfer to a Permanent Global Class D Note or Temporary Global Class D Note, a certificate in the form of Exhibit X-1 or Exhibit X-2, as applicable, the Transfer Agent shall (A) cancel such Definitive Class D Note, record the transfer in the Registrar, (B) if applicable (to the extent of any exchange or transfer in part), re-issue a new Definitive Class D Note for the partial amount to be held in definitive form in accordance with the provisions for the issuance of Definitive Class D Notes in the Base Indenture (as modified by this Supplement) and (C) approve the instructions at Euroclear, Clearstream and/or DTC, as applicable, concurrently with such cancellation and re-issuance (if applicable), to credit or cause to be credited the account specified in such instruction a beneficial interest in the Restricted Global Class D Note, Permanent Global Class D Note or Temporary Global Class D Note equal to the principal amount of the Definitive Class D Note transferred or exchanged.

(d) ABRCF or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any exchange or registration of transfer of the Class D Notes. No service charge shall be made for any such transaction.

(e) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, ABRCF shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate the Class D Notes, subject to such rules as the Trustee may reasonably require. No service charge to the Class D Noteholder shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange (except as otherwise expressly permitted herein), but the Registrar may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar government charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable upon exchanges pursuant to Section 2.13 of the Base Indenture in which event the Registrar will be responsible for the payment of any such taxes).

(f) All Class D Notes issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Class D Notes shall be the valid obligations of ABRCF, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Class D Notes surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(g) Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of any Class D Note, the Trustee, any Agent and ABRCF may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Class D Note is registered (as of the day of determination) as the absolute owner of such Class D Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of and interest on such Class D Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Class D Note is overdue, and neither the Trustee, any Agent nor ABRCF shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

(h) By its acceptance of a Class D Note, each Class D Noteholder and Class D Note Owner shall be deemed to have represented and warranted that its purchase and holding of the Class D Note will not, throughout the term of its holding an interest therein, constitute a non-exempt “prohibited transaction” under Section 406(a) of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, ABRCF and the Trustee have caused this Supplement to be duly executed by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized as of the day and year first above written.

The Trustee shall, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, deliver such Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers; provided, however, that if an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of sixty (60) consecutive days) with respect to a Demand Note Issuer shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee shall not be required to deliver such Demand Notice to such Demand Note Issuer. The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2020-2 Demand Note to be deposited into the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account.

(ii) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice delivered pursuant to Section 2.5(d)(i) in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of sixty (60) consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit an amount equal to the lesser of (i) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2020-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) by presenting to each Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider of a Class A/B/C Letter of Credit a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2020-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) and (y) the Class A/B/C Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2020-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit. The Trustee shall deposit into, or cause the deposit of, the proceeds of any draw on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account.

(iii) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Withdrawal. If the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount will be less than the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account in accordance with clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 2.5(d) and deposit it in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account on such Distribution Date.

(e) Class D Principal Deficit Amount. On each Distribution Date, other than the Series 2020-2 Final Distribution Date, on which the Class A Notes, Class B Notes and Class C Notes will have been paid in full and the Class D Principal Deficit Amount is greater than zero, amounts shall be transferred to the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account as follows:

(i) Demand Note Draw. If on the Determination Date with respect to any such Distribution Date, the Administrator determines that the Class D Principal Deficit Amount with respect to the next succeeding Distribution Date will be greater than zero and there are any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit or Class D Letters of Credit on such date, prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution

Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to deliver a Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers demanding payment of an amount equal to the lesser of (A) the Class D Principal Deficit Amount and (B) the sum of (x) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (y) the Class D Letter of Credit Amount. The Trustee shall, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, deliver such Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers; provided, however, that if an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of 60 consecutive days) with respect to a Demand Note Issuer shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee shall not be required to deliver such Demand Notice to such Demand Note Issuer. The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2020-2 Demand Note to be deposited into the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account.

(ii) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice delivered pursuant to Section 2.5(e)(i) in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of 60 consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit, if any, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2020-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) by presenting to each Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider of a Class A/B/C Letter of Credit a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2020-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) and (y) the Class A/B/C Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2020-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit. The Trustee shall deposit into, or cause the deposit of, the proceeds of any draw on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account.

(iii) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Withdrawal. If the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(c)(i) and (ii) will be less than the Class D Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class

A/B/C Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class D Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account in accordance with clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 2.5(e) and deposit it in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account on such Distribution Date.

(iv) Class D Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of 60 consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Class D Letters of Credit, if any, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) Class D Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the excess of (A) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2020-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (B) the amount deposited into the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(ii) and (iii) above, by presenting to each Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider of a Class D Letter of Credit a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the excess of (A) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2020-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (B) the amount deposited into the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(ii) and (iii) above and (y) the Class D Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of such excess on the Class D Letters of Credit. The Trustee shall deposit into, or cause the deposit of, the proceeds of any draw on the Class D Letters of Credit and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class D Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account.

(v) Class D Reserve Account Withdrawal. If the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(i) through (iv) will be less than the Class D Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class D Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class D Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account in accordance with clauses (i) through (iv) of this Section 2.5(e) and deposit it in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account on such Distribution Date.

If the Administrator fails to give notice or instructions to make any payment from or deposit into the Collection Account required to be given by the Administrator, at the time specified in the Administration Agreement or any other Related Document (including applicable grace periods), the Trustee shall make such payment or deposit into or from the Collection Account without such notice or instruction from the Administrator; provided, however, that the Administrator, upon request of the Trustee, promptly provides the Trustee with all information necessary to allow the Trustee to make such a payment or deposit. When any payment or deposit hereunder or under any other Related Document is required to be made by the Trustee or the Paying Agent at or prior to a specified time, the Administrator shall deliver any applicable written instructions with respect thereto reasonably in advance of such specified time.

Section 2.7. Series 2020-2 Reserve Accounts. (a) Establishment of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Series 2020-2 Agent for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders, the Class C Noteholders and the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account"), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2020-2 Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; provided, however, that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below "Baa3" by Moody's, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2020-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Reserve Account into the new Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee's security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Class A/B/C Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(d) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Series 2020-2 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2020-2 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Series 2020-2 Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2020-2 Noteholders. The Series 2020-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(e) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2020-2 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus and shall (i) transfer an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount as of such date over the Class D Liquidity Amount as of such date to the Class D Reserve Account and (ii) pay any remaining Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus to ABRCF.

(f) Termination of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Holders of the Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes and payable from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

(g) Establishment of Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Series 2020-2 Agent for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Reserve Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Reserve Account; provided that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class D Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class D Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2020-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Reserve Account into the new Class D Reserve Account. Initially, the Class D Reserve Account will be established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(h) Administration of the Class D Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class D Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee's security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(i) Earnings from Class D Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(j) Class D Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class D Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class D Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Reserve Account. The Class D Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2020-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a) (14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(k) Class D Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class D Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class D Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2020-2 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class D Reserve Account Surplus and shall pay such amount to ABRCF.

(l) Termination of Class D Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Class D Noteholders and payable from the Class D Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

Section 2.8. Series 2020-2 Letters of Credit and Series 2020-2 Cash Collateral Accounts. (a) Series 2020-2 Letters of Credit and Series 2020-2 Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Series 2020-2 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2020-2 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each Class A/B/C Letter of Credit; (ii) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. (b) Class D Letters of Credit and Class D Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Class D Notes.

In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each Class D Letter of Credit; (ii) the Class D Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class D Cash Collateral Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2020-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(c) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Class A/B/C Letter of Credit, excluding the amount available to be drawn under such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit but taking into account each substitute Class A/B/C Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2020-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount and the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Class A/B/C Letter of Credit, excluding the amount available to be drawn under such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit but taking into account a substitute Class A/B/C Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2020-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount or the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount under such expiring Class A/B/C Letter of Credit but taking into account any substitute Class A/B/C Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2020-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount under such expiring Class A/B/C Letter of Credit but taking into account any substitute Class A/B/C Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2020-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount available to be drawn on such expiring Class A/B/C Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Class A/B/C Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(c) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount of such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(d) Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Class D Letter of Credit, excluding the amount available to be drawn under such Class D Letter of Credit but taking into account each substitute Class D Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2020-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount and the Class D Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Class D Letter of Credit, excluding the amount available to be drawn under such Class D Letter of Credit but taking into account a substitute Class D Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2020-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount or the Class D Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount under such expiring Class D Letter of Credit but taking into account any substitute Class D Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2020-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount under such expiring Class D Letter of Credit but taking into account any substitute Class D Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2020-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount available to be drawn on such expiring Class D Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Class D Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(d) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount of such Class D Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(e) Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Providers. The Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing within one (1) Business Day of becoming aware that (i) the long-term senior unsecured debt credit rating of any Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider has fallen below “A1” as determined by Moody’s or (ii) the short-term senior unsecured debt credit rating of any Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider has fallen below “P-1” as determined by Moody’s. At such time the Administrator shall also notify the Trustee of (I)(i) if such Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider has issued a Class A/B/C Letter of Credit, the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount under the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit issued by such Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount under such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit, on such date, and (ii) the amount available to be drawn on such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit on such date and/or (II)(i) if such Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider has issued a Class D Letter of Credit, the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount under such Class D Letter of Credit issued by such Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount under such Class D Letter of Credit, on such date, and (ii) the amount available to be drawn on such Class D Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw on each such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (I)(i) and clause (I) of the immediately preceding sentence and to draw on each such Class D Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (II)(ii) and clause (II)(ii) of the immediately preceding sentence, in each case, on such Business Day by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement with respect to the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and the Termination Disbursement with respect to the Class D Letter of Credit to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(f) Termination Date Demands on the Series 2020-2 Letters of Credit. Prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day immediately succeeding the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Termination Date, the Administrator shall determine the Series 2020-2 Demand Note Payment Amount, if any, as of the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Termination Date and, if the Series 2020-2 Demand Note Payment Amount is greater than zero, instruct the Trustee in writing to draw on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit and/or the Class D Letters of Credit, as described herein. Upon receipt of any such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw an amount (I) on each such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit equal to the lesser of (i) the Series 2020-2 Demand Note Payment Amount and (ii) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Class A/B/C Letter of Credit to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee and (II) on each such Class D Letter of Credit equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of (x) the Series 2020-2 Demand Note Payment Amount over (y) the amounts drawn on the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit pursuant to this Section 2.8(f) and (ii) the Class D Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Class D Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Class D Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Class D Letter of Credit to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Class D Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee.

(g) Draws on the Series 2020-2 Letters of Credit. If there is more than one Class A/B/C Letter of Credit on the date of any draw on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Class A/B/C Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Pro Rata Share of the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Class A/B/C Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Class A/B/C Letters of Credit. If there is more than one Class D Letter of Credit on the date of any draw on the Class D Letters of Credit pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Class D Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class D Pro Rata Share of the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Class D Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Class D Letters of Credit.

(h) Establishment of Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Class A/B/C Letter of Credit pursuant to Section 2.8(c), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account into the new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(i) Administration of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(j) Establishment of Class D Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Class D Letter of Credit pursuant to Section 2.8(d), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class D Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Cash Collateral Account into the new Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(k) Administration of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class D Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(m) Series 2020-2 Cash Collateral Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2020-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2020-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount. In the event that the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class D Letters of Credit under the related Series 2020-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2020-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

(n) Termination of Series 2020-2 Cash Collateral Account. Upon the termination of this Supplement in accordance with its terms, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Series 2020-2 Noteholders and payable from any Series 2020-2 Cash Collateral Account as provided herein, shall (i) withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2020-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2020-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount and (ii) withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Series 2020-2 Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class D Letters of Credit under the related Series 2020-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2020-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

If the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Series 2020-2 Distribution Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2020-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Series 2020-2 Distribution Account into the new Series 2020-2 Distribution Account. The Series 2020-2 Distribution Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account to invest funds on deposit in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Series 2020-2 Distribution Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2020-2 Distribution Account shall be deemed to be on deposit and available for distribution.

In addition, such transferee shall be responsible for providing additional information or certification, as shall be reasonably requested by the Trustee, ABRCF or any Placement Agent for such Global Class D Notes, to support the truth and accuracy of such acknowledgements, representations and agreements, it being understood that such additional information is not intended to create additional restrictions on the transfer of the Class D Notes.

(c) If a holder of a beneficial interest in a Definitive Class D Note wishes at any time to exchange its interest in such Definitive Class D Note for an interest in a Restricted Global Class D Note, Permanent Global Class D Note or Temporary Global Class D Note, or to transfer its interest in such Definitive Class D Note to a Person who wishes to take delivery thereof in the form of an interest in a Restricted Global Class D Note, Permanent Global Class D Note or Temporary Global Class D Note, such holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream and DTC, as the case may be, exchange or cause the exchange or transfer of such interest for an equivalent beneficial interest a Restricted Global Class D Note, Permanent Global Class D Note or Temporary Global Class D Note. (e) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, ABRCF shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate the Class D Notes, subject to such rules as the Trustee may reasonably require. No service charge to the Class D Noteholder shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange (except as otherwise expressly permitted herein), but the Registrar may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar government charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable upon exchanges pursuant to Section 2.13 of the Base Indenture in which event the Registrar will be responsible for the payment of any such taxes).

(f) All Class D Notes issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Class D Notes shall be the valid obligations of ABRCF, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Class D Notes surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(g) Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of any Class D Note, the Trustee, any Agent and ABRCF may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Class D Note is registered (as of the day of determination) as the absolute owner of such Class D Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of and interest on such Class D Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Class D Note is overdue, and neither the Trustee, any Agent nor ABRCF shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

On each Distribution Date occurring on or after the date a withdrawal is made from the Series 2022-5 Collection Account pursuant to Section 2.5(a) or amounts are deposited in the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account pursuant to Section 2.3(f)(ii), 2.5(b), (c), (d) or (e) the Paying Agent shall, in accordance with Section 6.1 of the Base Indenture, pay pro rata to each Class D Noteholder from the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account the amount deposited therein pursuant to Section 2.5(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) less the aggregate amount applied to make the payments required pursuant to Section 2.5(f)(i), Section 2.5(f)(ii) and Section 2.5(f)(iii), to the extent necessary to pay the Class D Controlled Distribution Amount during the Series 2022-5 Controlled Amortization Period or to the extent necessary to pay the Class D Invested Amount during the Series 2022-5 Rapid Amortization Period.

(v) Class D Subordinated Interest Shortfall. On each Distribution Date occurring during the Series 2022-5 Rapid Amortization Period, after giving effect to the payments made pursuant to clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Section 2.5(f), the Paying Agent shall pay pro rata to each Class D Noteholder from the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account the amount deposited therein pursuant to Section 2.3(ii)(1), to the extent necessary to pay the Class D Subordinated Interest Shortfall as of such Distribution Date.

Section 2.6. Administrator's Failure to Instruct the Trustee to Make a Deposit, Draw or Payment. If the Administrator fails to give notice or instructions to make (i) any payment from or deposit into the Collection Account, (ii) any draw on the Series 2022-5 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit or (iii) any withdrawals from any Account, in each case required to be given by the Administrator, at the time specified in the Administration Agreement or any other Related Document (including applicable grace periods), the Trustee shall make such payment or deposit into or from the Collection Account, such draw on the Series 2022-5 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, or such withdrawal from such Account, in each case without such notice or instruction from the Administrator; provided, however, that the Administrator, upon request of the Trustee, promptly provides the Trustee with all information necessary to allow the Trustee to make such a payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal. When any payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal hereunder or under any other Related Document is required to be made by the Trustee or the Paying Agent at or prior to a specified time, the Administrator shall deliver any applicable written instructions with respect thereto reasonably in advance of such specified time.

Section 2.7. Series 2022-5 Reserve Accounts. (a) Establishment of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Series 2022-5 Agent for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders, the Class C Noteholders and the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account"), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2022-5 Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; provided, however, that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below "Baa3" by Moody's or "BBB-" by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2022-5 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Reserve Account into the new Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Series 2022-5 Reserve Account and so long as any Series 2022-5 Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of "AA-" or "F1+" by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of "AAmmf" by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee's security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Class A/B/C Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(d) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Series 2022-5 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2022-5 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Series 2022-5 Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2022-5 Noteholders. The Series 2022-5 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(e) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2022-5 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus and shall (i) transfer an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount as of such date over the Class D Liquidity Amount as of such date to the Class D Reserve Account and (ii) pay any remaining Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus to ABRCF.

(f) Termination of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Holders of the Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes and payable from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

(g) Establishment of Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Series 2022-5 Agent for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Reserve Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Reserve Account; provided that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class D Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class D Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2022-5 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Reserve Account into the new Class D Reserve Account. Initially, the Class D Reserve Account will be established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(h) Administration of the Class D Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class D Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(i) Earnings from Class D Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(j) Class D Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class D Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class D Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Reserve Account. The Class D Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2022-5 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(k) Class D Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class D Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class D Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2022-5 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class D Reserve Account Surplus and shall pay such amount to ABRCF.

(l) Termination of Class D Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Class D Noteholders and payable from the Class D Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

Section 2.8. Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2022-5 Cash Collateral Accounts. (a) Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2022-5 Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Series 2022-5 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2022-5 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the holders of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Series 2022-5 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(b) Class D Letters of Credit and Class D Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class D Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the “Class D Cash Collateral Account Collateral”). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2022-5 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(c) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2022-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount and the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2022-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount or the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C

Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2022-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2022-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(c) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(d) Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2022-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount and the Class D Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2022-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount or the Class D Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement

Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2022-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2022-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(d) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, (i) with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (I)(i) and clause (I) of the immediately preceding sentence and (ii) with respect to the Class D Notes, in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (II)(ii) and clause (II)(ii) of the immediately preceding sentence, in each case, on such Business Day by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes with respect to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and the Termination Disbursement allocated to the Class D Notes with respect to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

Upon receipt of any such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw an amount (I) on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) the Series 2022-5 Demand Note Payment Amount and (ii) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee and (II) on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of (x) the Series 2022-5 Demand Note Payment Amount over (y) the amounts drawn on the Multi-Series Letter of Credit pursuant to this Section 2.8(f) that are allocable to the Class D Notes and (ii) the Class D Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee.

(g) Draws on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class D Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes.

(h) Establishment of Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(c), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the "Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account"), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below "Baa3" by Moody's or "BBB-" by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account into the new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(i) Administration of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Class

A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and so long as any Class A Note, Class B Note or Class C Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(j) Establishment of Class D Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(d), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class D Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Cash Collateral Account into the new Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(k) Administration of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class D Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee's security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(1) Earnings from Series 2022-5 Cash Collateral Accounts. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2022-5 Cash Collateral Accounts shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(m) Series 2022-5 Cash Collateral Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2022-5 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2022-5 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount. In the event that the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2022-5 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2022-5 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

(n) Termination of Series 2022-5 Cash Collateral Account. Upon the termination of this Supplement in accordance with its terms, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Series 2022-5 Noteholders and payable from any Series 2022-5 Cash Collateral Account as provided herein, shall (i) withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2022-5 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2022-5 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount and (ii) withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2022-5 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2022-5 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

Section 2.9. Series 2022-5 Distribution Account. (a) Establishment of Series 2022-5 Distribution Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2022-5 Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Series 2022-5 Distribution Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2022-5 Noteholders. The Series 2022-5 Distribution Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Series 2022-5 Distribution Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Series 2022-5 Distribution Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2022-5 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Series 2022-5 Distribution Account into the new Series 2022-5 Distribution Account. The Series 2022-5 Distribution Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account to invest funds on deposit in the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted

Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Series 2022-5 Distribution Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2022-5 Distribution Account shall be deemed to be on deposit and available for distribution.

(iii) Reserve Account Withdrawal. If, after giving effect to the deposit into the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account of the amount to be deposited in accordance with Section 2.5(a) and the amounts described in clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 2.5(c), the amount to be deposited in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account with respect to the Series 2023-2 Final Distribution Date is or will be less than the Series 2023-2 Senior Invested Amount, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Series 2023-2 Final Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw (x) first, from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of the Class A/B/C Available Reserve Account Amount and such remaining insufficiency and (y) second, from the Class D Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of the Class D Available Reserve Account Amount and such remaining insufficiency (after giving effect to any withdrawal from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account) and, in each case, deposit it in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account on such Series 2023-2 Final Distribution Date.

The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2023-2 Demand Note to be deposited into the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account.

(ii) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice delivered pursuant to Section 2.5(d)(i) in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of sixty (60) consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes an amount allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) and (y) the Class A/B/C Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2023-2 Demand Note to be deposited into the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account.

(ii) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Draw. If the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(c)(i) and (ii) will be less than the Class D Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class D Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account in accordance with clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 2.5(e) and deposit it in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account on such Distribution Date.

(iv) Class D Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of 60 consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes, if any, an amount allocable to the Class D Notes equal to the lesser of (i) Class D Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the excess of (A) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (B) the amount deposited into the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(ii) and (iii) above, by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class D

Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the excess of (A) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (B) the amount deposited into the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(ii) and (iii) above and (y) the Class D Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of such excess on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes. The Trustee shall deposit into, or cause the deposit of, the applicable portion of the proceeds of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class D Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account.

(v) Class D Reserve Account Withdrawal. If the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(i) through (iv) will be less than the Class D Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class D Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class D Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account in accordance with clauses (i) through (iv) of this Section 2.5(e) and deposit it in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account on such Distribution Date.

Section 2.6. Administrator's Failure to Instruct the Trustee to Make a Deposit, Draw or Payment. If the Administrator fails to give notice or instructions to make (i) any payment from or deposit into the Collection Account, (ii) any draw on the Series 2023-2 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit or (iii) any withdrawals from any Account, in each case required to be given by the Administrator, at the time specified in the Administration Agreement or any other Related Document (including applicable grace periods), the Trustee shall make such payment or deposit into or from the Collection Account, such draw on the Series 2023-2 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, or such withdrawal from such Account, in each case without such notice or instruction from the Administrator; provided, however, that the Administrator, upon request of the Trustee, promptly provides the Trustee with all information necessary to allow the Trustee to make such a payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal. When any payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal hereunder or under any other Related Document is required to be made by the Trustee or the Paying Agent at or prior to a specified time, the Administrator shall deliver any applicable written instructions with respect thereto reasonably in advance of such specified time.

Section 2.7. Series 2023-2 Reserve Accounts. (a) Establishment of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Series 2023-2 Agent for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders, the Class C Noteholders and the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class A/B/C Reserve Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2023-2 Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; provided, however, that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2023-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Reserve Account into the new Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Series 2023-2 Reserve Account and so long as any Series 2023-2 Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee's security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Class A/B/C Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(d) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Series 2023-2 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2023-2 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Series 2023-2 Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2023-2 Noteholders. The Series 2023-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(e) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2023-2 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus and shall (i) transfer an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount as of such date over the Class D Liquidity Amount as of such date to the Class D Reserve Account and (ii) pay any remaining Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus to ABRCF.

(f) Termination of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Holders of the Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes and payable from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

(g) Establishment of Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Series 2023-2 Agent for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Reserve Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Reserve Account; provided that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class D Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class D Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2023-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Reserve Account into the new Class D Reserve Account. Initially, the Class D Reserve Account will be established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(h) Administration of the Class D Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class D Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(i) Earnings from Class D Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(j) Class D Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class D Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class D Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Reserve Account. The Class D Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2023-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(k) Class D Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class D Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class D Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2023-2 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class D Reserve Account Surplus and shall pay such amount to ABRCF.

(l) Termination of Class D Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Class D Noteholders and payable from the Class D Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

Section 2.8. Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2023-2 Cash Collateral Accounts. (a) Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2023-2 Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Series 2023-2 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2023-2 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the holders of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Series 2023-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(b) Class D Letters of Credit and Class D Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class D Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the “Class D Cash Collateral Account Collateral”). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2023-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(c) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount and the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount or the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(c) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(d) Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount and the Class D Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount or the Class D Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-2 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(d) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(e) Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers. The Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing within one (1) Business Day of becoming aware that (i) the long-term senior unsecured debt credit rating of any Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has fallen below “A1” as determined by Moody’s or “A+” as determined by Fitch or (ii) the short-term senior unsecured debt credit rating of any Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has fallen below “P-1” as determined by Moody’s or “F1” as determined by Fitch. At such time the Administrator shall also notify the Trustee of (I)(i) if such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has issued a Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under the Multi-Series Letter of Credit issued by such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, on such date, and (ii) the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn on such Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date and/or (II)(i) if such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has issued a Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes, the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit issued by such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, on such date, and (ii) the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn on such Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, (i) with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (I)(i) and clause (I) of the immediately preceding sentence and (ii) with respect to the Class D Notes, in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (II)(ii) and clause (II)(ii) of the immediately preceding sentence, in each case, on such Business Day by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes with respect to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and the Termination Disbursement allocated to the Class D Notes with respect to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(f) Termination Date Demands on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit. Prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day immediately succeeding the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, the Administrator shall determine the Series 2023-2 Demand Note Payment Amount, if any, as of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date and, if the Series 2023-2 Demand Note Payment Amount is greater than zero, instruct the Trustee in writing to draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit as described herein. Upon receipt of any such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw an amount (I) on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) the Series 2023-2 Demand Note Payment Amount and (ii) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee and (II) on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of (x) the Series 2023-2 Demand Note Payment Amount over (y) the amounts drawn on the Multi-Series Letter of Credit pursuant to this Section 2.8(f) that are allocable to the Class D Notes and (ii) the Class D Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee.

(g) Draws on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class D Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes.

(h) Establishment of Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(c), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the "Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account"), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below "Baa3" by Moody's or "BBB-" by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account into the new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(i) Administration of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and so long as any Class A Note, Class B Note or Class C Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of "AA-" or "F1+" by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(j) Establishment of Class D Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(d), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class D Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Cash Collateral Account into the new Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(k) Administration of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class D Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee;

(ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee's security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(1) Earnings from Series 2023-2 Cash Collateral Accounts. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2023-2 Cash Collateral Accounts shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(m) Series 2023-2 Cash Collateral Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2023-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2023-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount. In the event that the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2023-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2023-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

(n) Termination of Series 2023-2 Cash Collateral Account. Upon the termination of this Supplement in accordance with its terms, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Series 2023-2 Noteholders and payable from any Series 2023-2 Cash Collateral Account as provided herein, shall (i) withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2023-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2023-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount and (ii) withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class

D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2023-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2023-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

Section 2.9. Series 2023-2 Distribution Account. (a) Establishment of Series 2023-2 Distribution Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2023-2 Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Series 2023-2 Distribution Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2023-2 Noteholders. The Series 2023-2 Distribution Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Series 2023-2 Distribution Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Series 2023-2 Distribution Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2023-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Series 2023-2 Distribution Account into the new Series 2023-2 Distribution Account. The Series 2023-2 Distribution Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account to invest funds on deposit in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Series 2023-2 Distribution Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account shall be deemed to be on deposit and available for distribution.

(d) Series 2023-2 Distribution Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Series 2023-2 Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2023-2 Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Series 2023-2 Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Series 2023-2 Distribution Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account and in and to all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account. The Series 2023-2 Distribution Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2023-2 Noteholders. The Series 2023-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Series 2023-2 Distribution Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(iv) Class D Notes. On each Distribution Date occurring on or after the date a withdrawal is made from the Series 2023-3 Collection Account pursuant to Section 2.5(a) or amounts are deposited in the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account pursuant to Section 2.5(b), (c), (d) or (e) the Paying Agent shall, in accordance with Section 6.1 of the Base Indenture, pay pro rata to each Class D Noteholder from the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account the amount deposited therein pursuant to Section 2.5(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) less the aggregate amount applied to make the payments required pursuant to Section 2.5(f)(i), Section 2.5(f)(ii) and Section 2.5(f)(iii), to the extent necessary to pay the Class D Controlled Distribution Amount during the Series 2023-3 Controlled Amortization Period or to the extent necessary to pay the Class D Invested Amount during the Series 2023-3 Rapid Amortization Period.

(v) Class R Notes. On each Distribution Date occurring on or after the date a withdrawal is made from the Series 2023-3 Collection Account pursuant to Section 2.5(a) the Paying Agent shall, in accordance with Section 6.1 of the Base Indenture, pay pro rata to each Class R Noteholder from the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account the amount deposited therein pursuant to Section 2.5(a) less the aggregate amount applied to make the payments required pursuant to Section 2.5(f)(i), Section 2.5(f)(ii), Section 2.5(f)(iii) and Section 2.5(f)(iv), to the extent necessary to pay the Class R Controlled Amortization Amount during the Series 2023-3 Controlled Amortization Period or to the extent necessary to pay the Class R Invested Amount during the Series 2023-3 Rapid Amortization Period.

Section 2.6. Administrator's Failure to Instruct the Trustee to Make a Deposit, Draw or Payment. If the Administrator fails to give notice or instructions to make (i) any payment from or deposit into the Collection Account, (ii) any draw on the Series 2023-3 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit or (iii) any withdrawals from any Account, in each case required to be given by the Administrator, at the time specified in the Administration Agreement or any other Related Document (including applicable grace periods), the Trustee shall make such payment or deposit into or from the Collection Account, such draw on the Series 2023-3 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, or such withdrawal from such Account, in each case without such notice or instruction from the Administrator; provided, however, that the Administrator, upon request of the Trustee, promptly provides the Trustee with all information necessary to allow the Trustee to make such a payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal. When any payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal hereunder or under any other Related Document is required to be made by the Trustee or the Paying Agent at or prior to a specified time, the Administrator shall deliver any applicable written instructions with respect thereto reasonably in advance of such specified time.

Section 2.7. Series 2023-3 Reserve Accounts. (a) Establishment of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Series 2023-3 Agent for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders, the Class C Noteholders and the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account"), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2023-3 Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; provided, however, that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2023-3 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Reserve Account into the new Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Series 2023-3 Reserve Account and so long as any Series 2023-3 Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Class A/B/C Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(d) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Series 2023-3 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2023-3 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Series 2023-3 Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2023-3 Noteholders. The Series 2023-3 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(e) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2023-3 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus and shall (i) transfer an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount as of such date over the Class D Liquidity Amount as of such date to the Class D Reserve Account and (ii) pay any remaining Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus to ABRCF.

(f) Termination of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Holders of the Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes and payable from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

(g) Establishment of Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Series 2023-3 Agent for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Reserve Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Reserve Account; provided that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class D Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class D Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2023-3 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Reserve Account into the new Class D Reserve Account. Initially, the Class D Reserve Account will be established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(h) Administration of the Class D Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class D Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(i) Earnings from Class D Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(j) Class D Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class D Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class D Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Reserve Account. The Class D Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2023-3 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(k) Class D Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class D Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class D Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2023-3 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class D Reserve Account Surplus and shall pay such amount to ABRCF.

(l) Termination of Class D Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Class D Noteholders and payable from the Class D Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

Section 2.8. Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2023-3 Cash Collateral Accounts. (a) Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2023-3 Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Series 2023-3 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2023-3 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the holders of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the “Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Collateral”). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Series 2023-3 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(b) Class D Letters of Credit and Class D Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Class D Notes.

In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class D Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the “Class D Cash Collateral Account Collateral”). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2023-3 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(c) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount and the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount or the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(c) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(d) Class D Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount and the Class D Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount or the Class D Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-3 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(d) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(e) Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers. At such time the Administrator shall also notify the Trustee of (I)(i) if such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has issued a Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under the Multi-Series Letter of Credit issued by such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, on such date, and (ii) the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn on such Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date and/or (II)(i) if such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has issued a Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes, the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit issued by such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, on such date, and (ii) the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn on such Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, (i) with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (I)(i) and clause (I) of the immediately preceding sentence and (ii) with respect to the Class D Notes, in an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in clause (II)(i) and clause (II)(ii) of the immediately preceding sentence, in each case, on such Business Day by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement allocated to the Class

(g) Draws on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class D Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit

Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes.

(h) Establishment of Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(c), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account into the new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(i) Administration of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and so long as any Class A Note, Class B Note or Class C Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(j) Establishment of Class D Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(d), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class D Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Cash Collateral Account into the new Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(k) Administration of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class D Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(1) Earnings from Series 2023-3 Cash Collateral Accounts. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2023-3 Cash Collateral Accounts shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(m) Series 2023-3 Cash Collateral Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2023-3 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2023-3 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount. In the event that the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2023-3 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2023-3 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

(n) Termination of Series 2023-3 Cash Collateral Account. Upon the termination of this Supplement in accordance with its terms, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Series 2023-3 Noteholders and payable from any Series 2023-3 Cash Collateral Account as provided herein, shall (i) withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2023-3 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2023-3 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount and (ii) withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2023-3 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2023-3 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

Section 2.9. Series 2023-3 Distribution Account. (a) Establishment of Series 2023-3 Distribution Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2023-3 Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Series 2023-3 Distribution Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2023-3 Noteholders. The Series 2023-3 Distribution Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Series 2023-3 Distribution Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Series 2023-3 Distribution Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2023-3 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Series 2023-3 Distribution Account into the new Series 2023-3 Distribution Account. The Series 2023-3 Distribution Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account to invest funds on deposit in the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Series 2023-3 Distribution Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2023-3 Distribution Account shall be deemed to be on deposit and available for distribution.

The Series 2023-3 Distribution Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2023-3 Noteholders. Upon receipt of a notice by the Trustee from the Administrator in respect of a Series 2023-5 Lease Principal Payment Deficit on or prior to 3:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day immediately preceding a Distribution Date, the Trustee shall, by 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on such Business Day draw an amount as set forth in such notice equal to the least of (x) the excess of (A) such Series 2023-5 Lease Principal Payment Deficit over (B) the amount, if any, to be drawn on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes and/or withdrawn from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account on such Distribution Date in accordance with Section 2.5(b)(i) and/or (ii), (y) the Class D Principal Deficit Amount for such Distribution Date and (z) the Class D Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit that shall be allocable to the Class D Notes by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class D Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Lease Deficit Demand and shall cause the Lease Deficit Disbursements to be deposited in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account on such date; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage for such date of the lesser of (A) the excess of (1) the Series 2023-5 Lease Principal Payment Deficit over (2) the amount, if any, to be drawn on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes and/or withdrawn from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account on such Distribution Date in accordance with Section 2.5(b)(i) and/or (ii) and (B) the Class D Principal Deficit Amount for such Distribution Date and (y) the Class D Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such date and draw an amount equal to the remainder of such amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit that shall be allocable to the Class D Notes. Notwithstanding any of the preceding to the contrary, during the period after the date of the filing by any of the Lessees of a petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code until the date on which each of the Lessees shall have resumed making all payments of the portion of Monthly Base Rent relating to Loan Interest required to be made under the AESOP I Operating Lease, the Administrator shall only instruct the Trustee to draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes (or withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account, if applicable) pursuant to this Section 2.5(b)(iii), and if such instruction from the Administrator references this Section 2.5(b)(iii), the Trustee shall only draw (or withdraw), an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the amount determined as provided in the preceding sentence and (y) the excess, if any, of (A) the Class D Liquidity Amount on such date over (B) the Class D Required Liquidity Amount on such date.

(c) Final Distribution Date. Each of the entire Class A Invested Amount, the entire Class B Invested Amount, the entire Class C Invested Amount, the entire Class D Invested Amount and the entire Class R Invested Amount shall be due and payable on the Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date. In connection therewith:

(i) Demand Note Draw. If the amount to be deposited in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(a) together with any amounts to be deposited therein in accordance with Section 2.5(b) on the Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date is less than the Series 2023-5 Senior Invested Amount and there are any Multi-Series Letters of Credit on such date, then, prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to the Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to make a demand (a “Demand Notice”) substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit I on the Demand Note Issuers for payment under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes in an amount equal to the lesser of (x) such insufficiency and (y) the sum of the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and the Class D Letter of Credit Amount. The Trustee shall, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day preceding such Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date deliver such Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers; provided, however, that if an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of sixty (60) consecutive days) with respect to a Demand Note Issuer shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee shall not be required to deliver such Demand Notice to such Demand Note Issuer. The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes to be deposited into the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account.

(ii) Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day immediately preceding the Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date a Demand Notice has been transmitted by the Trustee to the Demand Note Issuers pursuant to clause (i) of this Section 2.5(c) and any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of sixty (60) consecutive days) with respect to one or more of the Demand Note Issuers, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding the Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall:

(1) draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day an amount allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (a) the amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) and (b) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount on such Business Day by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) and (y) the Class A/B/C Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of the amount that the Demand Note Issuers failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes. The Trustee shall deposit, or cause the deposit of, the applicable portion of the proceeds of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account; and

(2) draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day an amount allocable to the Class D Notes equal to the lesser of (a) the excess of (x) the amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (y) the amount drawn on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes and/or withdrawn from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account on such Business Day in accordance with Section 2.5(c)(ii)(1) and (b) the Class D Letter of Credit Amount on such Business Day by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class D Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the excess of (A) the amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand

Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (B) the amount drawn on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes and/or withdrawn from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account on such Business Day in accordance with Section 2.5(c)(ii)(1) and (y) the Class D Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of the excess of (A) the amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (B) the amount drawn on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes and/or withdrawn from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account on such Business Day in accordance with Section 2.5(c)(ii)(1) on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes. The Trustee shall deposit, or cause the deposit of, the applicable portion of the proceeds of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class D Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account.

(iii) Reserve Account Withdrawal. If, after giving effect to the deposit into the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account of the amount to be deposited in accordance with Section 2.5(a) and the amounts described in clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 2.5(c), the amount to be deposited in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account with respect to the Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date is or will be less than the Series 2023-5 Senior Invested Amount, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw (x) first, from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of the Class A/B/C Available Reserve Account Amount and such remaining insufficiency and (y) second, from the Class D Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of the Class D Available Reserve Account Amount and such remaining insufficiency (after giving effect to any withdrawal from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account) and, in each case, deposit it in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account on such Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date.

(d) Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount. On each Distribution Date, other than the Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date, on which the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount is greater than zero, amounts shall be transferred to the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account as follows:

(i) Demand Note Draw. If on any Determination Date, the Administrator determines that the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount with respect to the next succeeding Distribution Date will be greater than zero and there are any Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes on such date, prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to deliver a Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers demanding payment of an amount equal to the lesser of (A) the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount and (B) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount. The Trustee shall, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, deliver such Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers; provided, however, that if an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of sixty (60) consecutive days) with respect to a Demand Note Issuer shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee shall not be required to deliver such Demand Notice to such Demand Note Issuer. The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2023-5 Demand Note to be deposited into the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account.

(ii) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice delivered pursuant to Section 2.5(d)(i) in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of sixty (60) consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes an amount allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) and (y) the Class A/B/C Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. The Trustee shall deposit into, or cause the deposit of, the applicable portion of the proceeds of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account.

(iii) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Withdrawal. If the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount will be less than the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series

(e) Class D Principal Deficit Amount. On each Distribution Date, other than the Series 2023-5 Final Distribution Date, on which the Class A Notes, Class B Notes and Class C Notes will have been paid in full and the Class D Principal Deficit Amount is greater than zero, amounts shall be transferred to the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account as follows:

(i) Demand Note Draw. If on the Determination Date with respect to any such Distribution Date, the Administrator determines that the Class D Principal Deficit Amount with respect to the next succeeding Distribution Date will be greater than zero and there are any Multi-Series Letters of Credit on such date, prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to deliver a Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers demanding payment of an amount equal to the lesser of (A) the Class D Principal Deficit Amount and (B) the sum of (x) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (y) the Class D Letter of Credit Amount. The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2023-5 Demand Note to be deposited into the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account.

(ii) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice delivered pursuant to Section 2.5I(i) in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of 60 consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, if any, an amount allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2023-5 Demand Notes (or, the amount that

(b) Administration of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Series 2023-5 Reserve Account and so long as any Series 2023-5 Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Class A/B/C Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(d) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Series 2023-5 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2023-5 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Series 2023-5 Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2023-5 Noteholders. The Series 2023-5 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(e) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2023-5 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus and shall (i) transfer an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount as of such date over the Class D Liquidity Amount as of such date to the Class D Reserve Account and (ii) pay any remaining Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus to ABRCF.

(f) Termination of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Holders of the Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes and payable from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

(g) Establishment of Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Series 2023-5 Agent for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Reserve Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Reserve Account; provided that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class D Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class D Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2023-5 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Reserve Account into the new Class D Reserve Account. Initially, the Class D Reserve Account will be established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(h) Administration of the Class D Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class D Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(i) Earnings from Class D Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(j) Class D Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class D Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class D Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Reserve Account. The Class D Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2023-5 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(k) Class D Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class D Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class D Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2023-5 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class D Reserve Account Surplus and shall pay such amount to ABRCF.

(l) Termination of Class D Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Class D Noteholders and payable from the Class D Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

Section 2.8. Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2023-5 Cash Collateral Accounts. (a) Multi-Series Letters of Credit and Series 2023-5 Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Series 2023-5 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2023-5 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the holders of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the “Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Collateral”). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Series 2023-5 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(b) Class D Letters of Credit and Class D Cash Collateral Account Constitute Additional Collateral for Class D Notes.

In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) each applicable Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes (except for any right, title and interest in such Multi-Series Letter of Credit related to supporting another Series of Notes); (ii) the Class D Cash Collateral Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (iii) all funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time; (iv) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Cash Collateral Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (v) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Cash Collateral Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (vi) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Cash Collateral Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vii) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (ii) through (vii) are referred to, collectively, as the “Class D Cash Collateral Account Collateral”). The Trustee shall, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, possess all right, title and interest in all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Cash Collateral Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2023-5 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Cash Collateral Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as a securities intermediary is New York, (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(c) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Expiration Date. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount and the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount or the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(c) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be equal to or more than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount and the Class D Liquidity Amount would be equal to or greater than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of such determination. If prior to the date which is ten (10) days prior to the then-scheduled Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date with respect to any Multi-Series Letter of Credit, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under each substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect on such date, the Class D Enhancement Amount would be less than the Class D Required Enhancement Amount or the Class D Liquidity Amount would be less than the Class D Required Liquidity Amount, then the Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date of (x) the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available under such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit but taking into account the amount allocated to the Class D Notes under any substitute Multi-Series Letter of Credit which has been obtained from a Series 2023-5 Eligible Letter of Credit Provider and is in full force and effect, on such date, and (y) the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. Upon receipt of such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on any Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day (or, in the case of any notice given to the Trustee after 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the next following Business Day), draw the lesser of the amounts set forth in clauses (x) and (y) above on such expiring Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

If the Trustee does not receive the notice from the Administrator described in the first paragraph of this Section 2.8(d) on or prior to the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Expiration Date, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw the full amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit by presenting a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Demand and shall cause the Termination Disbursement to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(e) Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers. The Administrator shall notify the Trustee in writing within one (1) Business Day of becoming aware that (i) the long-term senior unsecured debt credit rating of any Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has fallen below “A1” as determined by Moody’s or “A+” as determined by Fitch or (ii) the short-term senior unsecured debt credit rating of any Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has fallen below “P-1” as determined by Moody’s or “F1” as determined by Fitch. At such time the Administrator shall also notify the Trustee of (I)(i) if such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has issued a Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Enhancement Amount over the Class A/B/C Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under the Multi-Series Letter of Credit issued by such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class A/B/C Required Liquidity Amount over the Class A/B/C Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, on such date, and (ii) the amount allocated to the Class A/B/C Notes and available to be drawn on such Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date and/or (II)(i) if such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider has issued a Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes, the greater of (A) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Enhancement Amount over the Class D Enhancement Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit issued by such Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider, on such date, and (B) the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount over the Class D Liquidity Amount, excluding the available amount allocated to the Class D Notes under such Multi-Series Letter of Credit, on such date, and (ii) the amount allocated to the Class D Notes and available to be drawn on such Multi-Series Letter of Credit on such date. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(c), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account into the new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(j) Establishment of Class D Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(d), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class D Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Cash Collateral Account into the new Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(k) Administration of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class D Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

The Series 2023-5 Distribution Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Series 2023-5 Distribution Account. The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2024-2 Demand Note to be deposited into the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account.

(ii) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice delivered pursuant to Section 2.5(d)(i) in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of sixty (60) consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes an amount allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) and (y) the Class A/B/C Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. The Trustee shall deposit into, or cause the deposit of, the applicable portion of the proceeds of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account.

(iii) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Withdrawal. If the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount will be less than the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class A/B/C Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account in accordance with clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 2.5(d) and deposit it in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account on such Distribution Date.

(e) Class D Principal Deficit Amount. On each Distribution Date, other than the Series 2024-2 Final Distribution Date, on which the Class A Notes, Class B Notes and Class C Notes will have been paid in full and the Class D Principal Deficit Amount is greater than zero, amounts shall be transferred to the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account as follows:

(i) Demand Note Draw. If on the Determination Date with respect to any such Distribution Date, the Administrator determines that the Class D Principal Deficit Amount with respect to the next succeeding Distribution Date will be greater than zero and there are any Multi-Series Letters of Credit on such date, prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to deliver a Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers demanding payment of an amount equal to the lesser of (A) the Class D Principal Deficit Amount and (B) the sum of (x) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (y) the Class D Letter of Credit Amount. The Trustee shall, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, deliver such Demand Notice to the Demand Note Issuers; provided, however, that if an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of 60 consecutive days) with respect to a Demand Note Issuer shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee shall not be required to deliver such Demand Notice to such Demand Note Issuer. The Trustee shall cause the proceeds of any demand on the Series 2024-2 Demand Note to be deposited into the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account.

(ii) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice delivered pursuant to Section 2.5I(i) in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of 60 consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes, if any, an amount allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) and (y) the Class A/B/C Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. The Trustee shall deposit into, or cause the deposit of, the applicable portion of the proceeds of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account.

(iii) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Withdrawal. If the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(c)(i) and (ii) will be less than the Class D Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class A/B/C Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class D Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account in accordance with clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 2.5(e) and deposit it in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account on such Distribution Date.

(iv) Class D Letter of Credit Draw. In the event that either (x) on or prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, any Demand Note Issuer shall have failed to pay to the Trustee or deposit into the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account the amount specified in such Demand Notice in whole or in part or (y) due to the occurrence of an Event of Bankruptcy (or the occurrence of an event described in clause (a) of the definition thereof, without the lapse of a period of 60 consecutive days) with respect to any Demand Note Issuer, the Trustee shall not have delivered such Demand Notice to any Demand Note Issuer on the second Business Day preceding such Distribution Date, then, in the case of (x) or (y) the Trustee shall on such Business Day draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes, if any, an amount allocable to the Class D Notes equal to the lesser of (i) Class D Letter of Credit Amount and (ii) the excess of (A) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (B) the amount deposited into the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(ii) and (iii) above, by presenting to each Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider with respect to the Class D Notes a draft accompanied by a Certificate of Unpaid Demand Note Demand; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account and deposit in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage on such Business Day of the excess of (A) the aggregate amount that the Demand Note Issuers so failed to pay under the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes (or, the amount that the Trustee failed to demand for payment thereunder) over (B) the amount deposited into the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(ii) and (iii) above and (y) the Class D Available Cash Collateral Account Amount on such Business Day and draw an amount equal to the remainder of such excess on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes. The Trustee shall deposit into, or cause the deposit of, the applicable portion of the proceeds of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes and the proceeds of any withdrawal from the Class D Cash Collateral Account to be deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account.

(v) Class D Reserve Account Withdrawal. If the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account in accordance with Section 2.5(e)(i) through (iv) will be less than the Class D Principal Deficit Amount on any Distribution Date, then, prior to 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the second Business Day prior to such Distribution Date, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee in writing to withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account, an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Class D Available Reserve Account Amount and (y) the amount by which the Class D Principal Deficit Amount exceeds the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account in accordance with clauses (i) through (iv) of this Section 2.5(e) and deposit it in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account on such Distribution Date.

Section 2.6. Administrator's Failure to Instruct the Trustee to Make a Deposit, Draw or Payment. If the Administrator fails to give notice or instructions to make (i) any payment from or deposit into the Collection Account, (ii) any draw on the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit or (iii) any withdrawals from any Account, in each case required to be given by the Administrator, at the time specified in the Administration Agreement or any other Related Document (including applicable grace periods), the Trustee shall make such payment or deposit into or from the Collection Account, such draw on the Series 2024-2 Demand Notes or the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, or such withdrawal from such Account, in each case without such notice or instruction from the Administrator; provided, however, that the Administrator, upon request of the Trustee, promptly provides the Trustee with all information necessary to allow the Trustee to make such a payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal. When any payment, deposit, draw or withdrawal hereunder or under any other Related Document is required to be made by the Trustee or the Paying Agent at or prior to a specified time, the Administrator shall deliver any applicable written instructions with respect thereto reasonably in advance of such specified time.

Section 2.7. Series 2024-2 Reserve Accounts. (a) Establishment of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Series 2024-2 Agent for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders, the Class C Noteholders and the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account"), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2024-2 Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; provided, however, that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class A/B/C Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2024-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Reserve Account into the new Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Series 2024-2 Reserve Account and so long as any Series 2024-2 Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(c) Earnings from Class A/B/C Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(d) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Series 2024-2 Senior Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Series 2024-2 Senior Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Series 2024-2 Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class A/B/C Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class A/B/C Reserve Account. The Class A/B/C Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2024-2 Noteholders. The Series 2024-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(e) Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2024-2 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus and shall (i) transfer an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Class D Required Liquidity Amount as of such date over the Class D Liquidity Amount as of such date to the Class D Reserve Account and (ii) pay any remaining Class A/B/C Reserve Account Surplus to ABRCF.

(f) Termination of Class A/B/C Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Holders of the Class A Notes, Class B Notes or Class C Notes and payable from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

(g) Establishment of Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Series 2024-2 Agent for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Reserve Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Reserve Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Reserve Account; provided that, if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Reserve Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Class D Reserve Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Class D Reserve Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2024-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Reserve Account into the new Class D Reserve Account. Initially, the Class D Reserve Account will be established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(h) Administration of the Class D Reserve Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Class D Reserve Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Reserve Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Reserve Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Reserve Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall remain uninvested.

(i) Earnings from Class D Reserve Account. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Class D Reserve Account shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(j) Class D Reserve Account Constitutes Additional Collateral for Class D Notes. In order to secure and provide for the repayment and payment of the ABRCF Obligations with respect to the Class D Notes, ABRCF hereby grants a security interest in and assigns, pledges, grants, transfers and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, all of ABRCF's right, title and interest in and to the following (whether now or hereafter existing or acquired): (i) the Class D Reserve Account, including any security entitlement thereto; (ii) all funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iii) all certificates and instruments, if any, representing or evidencing any or all of the Class D Reserve Account or the funds on deposit therein from time to time; (iv) all investments made at any time and from time to time with monies in the Class D Reserve Account, whether constituting securities, instruments, general intangibles, investment property, financial assets or other property; (v) all interest, dividends, cash, instruments and other property from time to time received, receivable or otherwise distributed in respect of or in exchange for the Class D Reserve Account, the funds on deposit therein from time to time or the investments made with such funds; and (vi) all proceeds of any and all of the foregoing, including, without limitation, cash (the items in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vi) are referred to, collectively, as the "Class D Reserve Account Collateral"). The Trustee shall possess all right, title and interest in and to all funds on deposit from time to time in the Class D Reserve Account and in all proceeds thereof, and shall be the only person authorized to originate entitlement orders in respect of the Class D Reserve Account. The Class D Reserve Account Collateral shall be under the sole dominion and control of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Series 2024-2 Agent hereby agrees (i) to act as the securities intermediary (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(14) of the New York UCC) with respect to the Class D Reserve Account; (ii) that its jurisdiction as securities intermediary is New York; (iii) that each item of property (whether investment property, financial asset, security, instrument or cash) credited to the Class D Reserve Account shall be treated as a financial asset (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(9) of the New York UCC) and (iv) to comply with any entitlement order (as defined in Section 8-102(a)(8) of the New York UCC) issued by the Trustee.

(k) Class D Reserve Account Surplus. In the event that the Class D Reserve Account Surplus on any Distribution Date, after giving effect to all withdrawals from the Class D Reserve Account, is greater than zero, if no Series 2024-2 Enhancement Deficiency or AESOP I Operating Lease Vehicle Deficiency would result therefrom or exist thereafter, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator pursuant to the Administration Agreement, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account an amount equal to the Class D Reserve Account Surplus and shall pay such amount to ABRCF.

(l) Termination of Class D Reserve Account. Upon the termination of the Indenture pursuant to Section 11.1 of the Base Indenture, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Class D Noteholders and payable from the Class D Reserve Account as provided herein, shall withdraw from the Class D Reserve Account all amounts on deposit therein for payment to ABRCF.

(f) Termination Date Demands on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit. Prior to 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day immediately succeeding the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, the Administrator shall determine the Series 2024-2 Demand Note Payment Amount, if any, as of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date and, if the Series 2024-2 Demand Note Payment Amount is greater than zero, instruct the Trustee in writing to draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit as described herein. Upon receipt of any such notice by the Trustee on or prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day, the Trustee shall, by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on such Business Day draw an amount (I) on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes equal to the lesser of (i) the Series 2024-2 Demand Note Payment Amount and (ii) the Class A/B/C Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes to be deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee and (II) on each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of (x) the Series 2024-2 Demand Note Payment Amount over (y) the amounts drawn on the Multi-Series Letter of Credit pursuant to this Section 2.8(f) that are allocable to the Class D Notes and (ii) the Class D Letter of Credit Liquidity Amount on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit by presenting to each relevant Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider a draft for each such Multi-Series Letter of Credit accompanied by a Certificate of Termination Date Demand and shall cause the Termination Date Disbursement on a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes to be deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if the Class D Cash Collateral Account has been established and funded, the Trustee shall draw an amount equal to the product of (a) 100% minus the Class D Cash Collateral Percentage and (b) the lesser of the amounts referred to in clause (i) and (ii) on such Business Day on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit, as calculated by the Administrator and provided in writing to the Trustee.

(g) Draws on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes. If there is more than one Multi-Series Letter of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes on the date of any draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit with respect to the Class D Notes pursuant to the terms of this Supplement, the Administrator shall instruct the Trustee, in writing, to draw on each Multi-Series Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the Class D Pro Rata Share of the Multi-Series Letter of Credit

Provider issuing such Multi-Series Letter of Credit of the amount of such draw on the Multi-Series Letters of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes.

(h) Establishment of Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class A/B/C Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(c), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class A Noteholders, the Class B Noteholders and the Class C Noteholders. The Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “A” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account into the new Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account.

(i) Administration of the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date; provided further, that in the case of Permitted Investments held in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and so long as any Class A Note, Class B Note or Class C Note is rated by Fitch (x) any Permitted Investment set forth in clauses (ii), (iii), (vi) and (vii) of the definition thereof will have a rating of “AA-” or “F1+” by Fitch and (y) any Permitted Investment set forth in clause (v) of the definition thereof will either have a rating of “AAAmmf” by Fitch or, if such fund is not rated by Fitch, the then highest rating from two nationally recognized investment rating agencies (other than Fitch). All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investment prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investment. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(j) Establishment of Class D Cash Collateral Account. On or prior to the date of any drawing under a Multi-Series Letter of Credit allocable to the Class D Notes pursuant to Section 2.8(d), (e) or (f) above, ABRCF shall establish and maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Class D Cash Collateral Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Class D Noteholders. The Class D Cash Collateral Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Class D Cash Collateral Account with a new Qualified Institution or a new segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Class D Cash Collateral Account. If a new Class D Cash Collateral Account is established, ABRCF shall instruct the Trustee in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Class D Cash Collateral Account into the new Class D Cash Collateral Account.

(k) Administration of the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF may instruct (by standing instructions or otherwise) the institution maintaining the Class D Cash Collateral Account to invest funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Class D Cash Collateral Account is held with the Paying Agent, in which case such investment may mature on such Distribution Date so long as such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities. The Trustee shall, at the expense of ABRCF, take such action as is required to maintain the Trustee’s security interest in the Permitted Investments credited to the Class D Cash Collateral Account. ABRCF shall not direct the Trustee to dispose of (or permit the disposal of) any Permitted Investments prior to the maturity thereof to the extent such disposal would result in a loss of the purchase price of such Permitted Investments. In the absence of written investment instructions hereunder, funds on deposit in the Class D Cash Collateral Account shall remain uninvested.

(l) Earnings from Series 2024-2 Cash Collateral Accounts. All interest and earnings (net of losses and investment expenses) paid on funds on deposit in the Series 2024-2 Cash Collateral Accounts shall be deemed to be on deposit therein and available for distribution.

(m) Series 2024-2 Cash Collateral Account Surplus. In the event that the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2024-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2024-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount. In the event that the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus on any Distribution Date (or, after the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Termination Date, on any date) is greater than zero, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, shall withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account an amount equal to the Class D Cash Collateral Account Surplus and shall pay such amount: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2024-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2024-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

(n) Termination of Series 2024-2 Cash Collateral Account. Upon the termination of this Supplement in accordance with its terms, the Trustee, acting in accordance with the written instructions of the Administrator, after the prior payment of all amounts owing to the Series 2024-2 Noteholders and payable from any Series 2024-2 Cash Collateral Account as provided herein, shall (i) withdraw from the Class A/B/C Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings with respect to any Class A/B/C Letters of Credit under the related Series 2024-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2024-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount and (ii) withdraw from the Class D Cash Collateral Account all amounts on deposit therein (to the extent not withdrawn pursuant to Section 2.8(m) above) and shall pay such amounts: first, to the Multi-Series Letter of Credit Providers to the extent of any unreimbursed drawings allocable to the Class D Notes with respect to any Multi-Series Letters of Credit under the related Series 2024-2 Reimbursement Agreement, for application in accordance with the provisions of the related Series 2024-2 Reimbursement Agreement, and, second, to ABRCF any remaining amount.

Section 2.9. Series 2024-2 Distribution Account. (a) Establishment of Series 2024-2 Distribution Account. ABRCF has established and shall maintain in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Series 2024-2 Noteholders, or cause to be established and maintained, an account (the “Series 2024-2 Distribution Account”), bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds deposited therein are held for the benefit of the Series 2024-2 Noteholders. The Series 2024-2 Distribution Account shall be maintained (i) with a Qualified Institution, or (ii) as a segregated trust account with the corporate trust department of a depository institution or trust company having corporate trust powers and acting as trustee for funds deposited in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account; provided, however, that if at any time such Qualified Institution is no longer a Qualified Institution or the credit rating of any securities issued by such depository institution or trust company shall be reduced to below “Baa3” by Moody’s or “BBB-” by Fitch, then ABRCF shall, within thirty (30) days of such reduction, establish a new Series 2024-2 Distribution Account with a new Qualified Institution. If the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account is not maintained in accordance with the previous sentence, ABRCF shall establish a new Series 2024-2 Distribution Account, within ten (10) Business Days after obtaining knowledge of such fact, which complies with such sentence, and shall instruct the Series 2024-2 Agent in writing to transfer all cash and investments from the non-qualifying Series 2024-2 Distribution Account into the new Series 2024-2 Distribution Account. The Series 2024-2 Distribution Account has initially been established with The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A.

(b) Administration of the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account. The Administrator may instruct the institution maintaining the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account to invest funds on deposit in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account from time to time in Permitted Investments; provided, however, that any such investment shall mature not later than the Business Day prior to the Distribution Date following the date on which such funds were received, unless any Permitted Investment held in the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account is held with the Paying Agent, then such investment may mature on such Distribution Date and such funds shall be available for withdrawal on or prior to such Distribution Date. All such Permitted Investments will be credited to the Series 2024-2 Distribution Account and any such Permitted Investments that constitute (i) physical property (and that is not either a United States security entitlement or a security entitlement) shall be physically delivered to the Trustee; (ii) United States security entitlements or security entitlements shall be controlled (as defined in Section 8-106 of the New York UCC) by the Trustee pending maturity or disposition, and (iii) uncertificated securities (and not United States security entitlements) shall be delivered to the Trustee by causing the Trustee to become the registered holder of such securities.
