Dear Colleagues,

I wanted to provide you with an update on our plans for our upcoming 2018 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Today we filed preliminary proxy materials with the SEC and issued a corresponding press release with information on our proposed slate of director nominees for election at the meeting. You can find the press release we issued here [insert link]. We expect to mail definitive proxy materials – which will provide shareholders with the opportunity to vote their shares for director candidates – in the near future, once the SEC has completed its review of our preliminary filing.

As we announced in January, the Board engaged in a refreshment process to find highly qualified candidates to replace three of our current directors – Ron Nelson, Jack Hardy and Stender Sweeney – who were planning to retire from the Board. We are pleased to be adding two new independent nominees identified through that process to our slate: Francis Shammo, the former Chief Financial Officer of Verizon, and Glenn Lurie, the former Chief Executive Officer of AT&T Mobility, who was recently appointed as CEO of Synchronoss.

Jack and Stender are exemplary Board members and have provided sound counsel to Avis Budget Group over their many years of committed service. Ron has been a mentor to me both as a direct report of his for many years and since I assumed the role of Chief Executive Officer in January 2016, and his guidance and counsel have been invaluable.

We are also including three nominees proposed by SRS – Sanoke Viswanathan, who currently sits on our Board, Jagdeep Pahwa, SRS's President, and Carl Sparks, who has a deep background in the travel industry. We believe the inclusion of three SRS candidates on our slate of 12 nominees demonstrates our willingness to work cooperatively with our largest shareholder to advance the best interests of all shareholders.

Today's filing is part of our preparation for the Annual Meeting, and it has no effect on our day-to-day operations. Over the next several weeks and until the Annual Meeting, we will be communicating frequently with Avis Budget Group shareholders to encourage them to elect our proposed slate of director nominees.

As a reminder, if you receive investor inquiries, please refer them to Neal Goldner at IR@avisbudget.com or (973) 496-5086. Media inquiries should be referred to Alice Pereira at PR@avisbudget.com or (973) 496-3916.

Thank you for your continued hard work and dedication to Avis Budget Group.

Regards,

Larry De Shon
Chief Executive Officer
