AVIS BUDGET GROUP REPORTS RESULTS
FOR SECOND QUARTER 2008

- Second quarter revenue increased 4%, to a record $1.6 billion.
- Generated EBITDA of $77 million and pretax income of $25 million.
- Off-airport revenue grew 10% and cost-savings program accelerated as planned.
- Provides additional details on 2008 outlook.

Parsippany, N.J., August 6, 2008 - Avis Budget Group, Inc. (NYSE: CAR) today reported results for its second quarter, which ended June 30, 2008. For the second quarter, revenue grew to $1.6 billion, an increase of 4% versus second quarter 2007. EBITDA totaled $77 million and pretax income was $25 million.

“The impact of rising fuel costs and a weak economy began to affect commercial travel volumes in the second quarter. Leisure traffic was less affected, as softer transaction volume was more than offset by longer length of rental. Enplanements declined sequentially throughout the quarter. This, combined with lower-than-expected time and mileage rates per day, made the second quarter a challenging operating environment,” said Ronald L. Nelson, Avis Budget Group Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. “However, we maintained our revenue growth momentum, adjusted our fleet levels appropriately during the quarter, and continued to achieve solid results in our sales of used vehicles.”

“More importantly, we continued to make significant progress in our Performance Excellence process improvement initiative, in ancillary revenue growth and in increasing our off-airport presence. In addition, we have seen tighter industry-wide fleet levels thus far in the third quarter, combined with year-over-year pricing gains; transaction volume, however, continues to reflect a slowdown in the travel environment,” Mr. Nelson said.

“As a result, we remain cautious in our outlook for the seasonally slower fourth quarter, for commercial travel volumes and for the pricing environment, and are aggressively responding to the expectation of a soft travel climate. We are decreasing field and corporate staffing levels, adjusting the size and composition of our fleet to better match anticipated demand, reducing compensation costs and significantly curtailing discretionary spending. In addition, we are exploring additional opportunities among our revenue streams, costs and business mix to improve profitability. These steps will not only better position us to weather an anticipated weaker environment, but should also add additional coverage under the financial ratios included in our credit facilities.”

Executive Summary

In the second quarter, our car rental revenues increased 5% year-over-year, driven primarily by a 3% increase in rental days and a 15% increase in ancillary revenues. Time and mileage revenue per day rates for our car rental operations were flat versus second quarter 2007, and down 1% excluding the impact of foreign exchange, as leisure pricing was challenged, especially in April due largely to the timing of the Easter holiday. Commercial time and mileage rates per day also decreased slightly.

Our car fleet costs increased 11% due to a 2% increase in our fleet to support volume growth, a 7% increase in our per-unit fleet costs and a 1% increase due to foreign exchange movements. Our disposition of risk cars progressed well, and our fleet costs benefited from longer hold periods. (As discussed previously, we had expected the second quarter per-unit increase in fleet costs to be higher than the first-quarter increase due to a more difficult comparison to 2007. Our forecast for the full year 2008 increase in fleet costs continues to be 4-6% on a per-unit basis.) Other operating expenses, excluding fleet-related costs, decreased by 40 basis points to 51.3% of revenue, primarily due to our cost-reduction efforts and lower self-insurance costs, partially offset by increased gasoline costs.

Truck rental revenue and EBITDA declined as a slight increase in rental days and lower fleet costs were offset by price declines compared to second quarter 2007. The increase in rental days reflected growth in commercial and local consumer rentals, while one-way rental volumes continued to experience softness as the housing market remained weak. Pricing declined across all sectors of our truck rental business, and the reduction in one-way rentals, which typically have a higher daily rate, magnified the decline in average daily rate.

Business Segment Discussion

The following discussion of second quarter operating results focuses on revenue and EBITDA for each of our operating segments. Revenue and EBITDA are expressed in millions.

Domestic Car Rental

(Consisting of the Company’s U.S. Avis and Budget car rental operations)

	2008	2007	% change
Revenue	$1,241	$1,195	4%
EBITDA	$ 46	$ 59	(22)%

Revenue increased primarily due to a 3% increase in rental days and a 13% increase in ancillary revenues. EBITDA declined as volume growth, cost savings and lower self-insurance costs were offset by the decline in time and mileage per day rates, higher gasoline expense and an increase in fleet costs year-over-year.

International Car Rental

(Consisting of the Company's international Avis and Budget car rental operations)

	2008	2007	% change
Revenue	$230	$202	14%
EBITDA	$ 25	$ 21	19%

Revenue increased primarily due to an 8% increase in time and mileage per day rates, increased ancillary revenues and a 3% increase in rental days. Excluding the impact of foreign exchange rate movements, time and mileage per day rates decreased 2%. EBITDA increased year-over-year due to volume growth, increased ancillary revenues, lower self-insurance costs and favorable foreign exchange movements.

Truck Rental

(Consisting of the Company's Budget Truck rental business)

	2008	2007	% change
Revenue	$105	$114	(8)%
EBITDA	$ 8	$ 10	(20)%

Revenue decreased primarily due to a 10% decrease in time and mileage per day rates. EBITDA decreased due to the revenue decline partially offset by operating cost-reduction efforts and decreased fleet costs.

Other Items

- Free Cash Flow - We generated $160 million of Free Cash Flow in the six months ended June 30, 2008. Excluding the effect of acquiring and refinancing fleet purchased in the acquisition of licensees (principally the Budget licensees for Newark, N.J. and Norfolk, Va.), we generated $137 million of Free Cash Flow in the six-month period, and we continue to target Free Cash Flow to be 85% or more of pretax income in 2008.
- Domestic Vehicle Financing Facility - In April, we completed a new $300 million fleet lease facility to finance program cars in 2008 and 2009.
- Carey - Our second quarter results include our equity in the results of Carey International, the leading international provider of chauffeured ground transportation services. These results are included in the Corporate and Other segment and did not have a meaningful impact.
- Separation Expenses - We incurred $1 million of expenses in second quarter 2008 for activities related to our 2006 separation into four independent companies, versus $3 million in second quarter 2007.
- Capacity to Repurchase Stock or Bonds - As of June 30, 2008, we have approximately $110 million of capacity to repurchase common stock or outstanding bonds under provisions in our credit facility that limit such activity. To date, we have repurchased $33 million of common stock under the $50 million share repurchase authorization announced in January 2008.

Outlook

The Company has updated its outlook for 2008. We project that domestic enplanements, which are a principal determinant of on-airport rental volumes, will decrease in 2008 compared to 2007 amid airline capacity reductions and a weak macroeconomic environment in second half 2008. In addition, the Company expects that its domestic time and mileage revenue per rental day will be approximately unchanged and its domestic rental day volume will increase approximately 0-2% in 2008 compared to 2007. We expect incremental year-over-year revenue growth from where2 GPS rentals and insurance replacement rentals.

Domestic fleet costs are expected to increase approximately 4-6% per vehicle in 2008 compared to 2007. For the 2008 model year, the Company expects the portion of its domestic fleet that is not subject to manufacturer repurchase agreements to be approximately 50%, up from approximately 20% in model year 2007. In addition, the Company has intensified its efforts to reduce costs and enhance productivity through its Performance Excellence and other initiatives and expects the impact of these initiatives to exceed $40 million over the course of 2008.

While it continues to be a difficult in the current environment to accurately forecast our future results, the Company projects that its 2008 revenue will increase compared to 2007, but that EBITDA will be approximately $350 million and pretax income will be approximately $140 million for full year 2008, excluding any unusual items. In 2007, the Company reported revenue of $6.0 billion, EBITDA of $409 million and pretax income of $198 million, excluding unusual items.

DEFINITIONS AND RECONCILIATIONS OF NON-GAAP MEASURES
(In millions)

The accompanying press release includes certain non-GAAP (generally accepted accounting principles) financial measures as defined under SEC rules. To the extent not provided in the press release or accompanying tables, we have provided below the reasons we present these non-GAAP financial measures, a description of what they represent and a reconciliation to the most comparable financial measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP.

DEFINITIONS

EBITDA

The accompanying press release presents EBITDA, which represents income (loss) from continuing operations before non-vehicle related depreciation and amortization, any goodwill impairment charge, non-vehicle related interest (other than intercompany interest related to tax benefits and working capital advances) and income taxes. We believe that EBITDA is useful as a supplemental measure in evaluating the aggregate performance of our operating businesses. EBITDA is the measure that is used by our management, including our chief operating decision maker, to perform such evaluation. It is also a component of our financial covenant calculations under our credit facilities, subject to certain adjustments. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for net income or other income statement data prepared in accordance with GAAP and our presentation of EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures used by other companies.

A reconciliation of EBITDA to income before income taxes can be found on Table 1 and a reconciliation of income before income taxes to net income can be found on Table 2.

EBITDA excluding unusual items and income before income taxes excluding unusual items

The accompanying press release presents EBITDA and income before income taxes for the year ended December 31, 2007 excluding unusual items. Unusual items consist of Separation-related expenses (credits) for EBITDA. For income before income taxes, unusual items include Separation-related expenses (credits) and goodwill impairment. Separation-related expenses were costs incurred in connection with the execution of the plan to separate Cendant Corporation (as we were formerly known) into four independent companies. Separation-related expenses for the year ended December 31, 2007 include a $14 million credit resulting from the recognition of receivables from Realogy and Wyndham for tax-related liabilities recorded on January 1, 2007 in connection with the adoption of FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes". We recorded a charge of $1,195 million for the impairment of goodwill during the fourth quarter 2007, primarily reflecting the decline in the market value of our common stock compared to its book value.

We believe that EBITDA excluding unusual items and income before income taxes excluding unusual items are useful as supplemental measures in evaluating the aggregate performance of the Company. We exclude separation-related expenses (credits) and goodwill impairment charge as such items are not representative of the results of operations of our business at December 31, 2007.

Debt under vehicle rental programs, net of investment in Avis Budget Rental Car Funding (AESOP) LLC

Table 1 of the accompanying press release presents debt under vehicle programs, net of investment in Avis Budget Rental Car Funding (AESOP) LLC, which is a related party entity. We present debt under vehicle programs, net of our investment as we made a decision to invest funds from vehicle sales into Avis Budget Rental Car Funding as equity rather than use such funds to repay debt during the first quarter of 2008 and we believe that this presentation presents our debt due to third party lenders within our debt under vehicle programs as of June 30, 2008 on a more comparable basis to the corresponding period in 2007.

Free Cash Flow

Represents Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities adjusted to include the cash inflows and outflows relating to (i) capital expenditures and GPS navigational units, (ii) the investing and financing activities of our vehicle programs, (iii) asset sales and (iv) the change in restricted cash. We believe that Free Cash Flow is useful to management and the Company's investors in measuring the cash generated by the Company that is available to be used to repurchase stock, repay debt obligations, pay dividends and invest in future growth through new business development activities or acquisitions. Free Cash Flow should not be construed as a substitute in measuring operating results or liquidity, and our presentation of Free Cash Flow may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures used by other companies. A reconciliation of Free Cash Flow to the appropriate measure recognized under GAAP (Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities) is presented in Table 4, which accompanies this press release.

Projected Free Cash Flow

The accompanying press release presents projected Free Cash Flow as a percentage of income before income taxes. We do not provide a reconciliation of projected Free Cash Flow to Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities as we do not forecast all of the components within Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities.
